President's Message

Academic Year 2024–2025 was a year of purposeful growth for De La Salle–College of Saint Benilde. As a community of learners, we continued to advance our mission by strengthening academic programs, expanding institutional partnerships, and investing in environments that support innovation, creativity, and inclusive learning.

Throughout the year, Benilde marked significant achievements across instruction, research, creative practice, and community engagement. We introduced new academic and co-curricular initiatives responsive to emerging industries, reinforced internationalization efforts, and deepened collaborations with cultural, creative, and professional sectors. At the same time, we pursued strategic developments in campus facilities, digital systems, and sustainability-driven projects—ensuring that our learning spaces evolve alongside the aspirations of our students.

This Annual Report reflects the collective work of our faculty, administrators, staff, students, alumni, and partners, whose dedication continues to shape Benilde as a forward-looking institution. Their commitment has enabled us to remain resilient amid change, while staying grounded in our Lasallian values of faith, service, and communion in mission.

As we move forward, we do so with gratitude and confidence—guided by a clear vision for the future and a shared responsibility to educate creative, compassionate, and socially responsive leaders. Together, we will continue to build a Benilde that is innovative in practice, inclusive in spirit, and impactful in purpose.

Br. Josemari Jimenez FSC

Br. Jose Mari L. Jimenez FSC has been a De La Salle Brother and Lasallian educator for 31 years now.

He is grateful that in the course of his life as a Brother, he has been involved in both Lasallian formation and school administration. These engagements have helped him become aware of the importance of culture-building in our educational communities; the evolving nature of our educational ministries; and the processes that are needed to ensure their sustainability.

Among his many assignments, the opportunity to serve in Papua New Guinea was a turning point in his own vocation. The short stint there from 2000 to 2002 allowed him to experience the international nature of our Lasallian mission and the gift of cross-cultural encounters to challenge and re-shape one's worldview. He is currently completing his PhD in Environmental Science. He would not have imagined doing this if not for the curious young people whom he taught in Jaime Hilario in Bagac, Bataan. If there is a gift he is most grateful for, it is the gift of association with our Lasallian Partners. Their example and commitment have given shape to his own commitment as a De La Salle Brother.

As we look to the future evolution of our mission, De La Salle's encounter with the poor and its power to generate commitment and build a new community he hopes will be a story that we will want to live out in our time.

Ms. Maria Rita O. Matute

Rhea Matute has been the Executive Director of the Design Center of the Philippines since 2017. Prior to Design Center, Rhea was the Deputy Executive Director at the Center for International Trade Expositions and Missions (CITEM). She is a changemaker and institution builder who works to catalyze creative communities for positive change. She has 30 years of experience at the nexus of strategic design, business growth, innovation, and policy. Rhea has crafted trailblazing programs and projects for both the design and creative sectors, as well as enterprises, which have served as local and international development templates.

The Embassy of France to the Philippines awarded Rhea the Prix d'Excellence Alumni 2023 as one of France's outstanding alumni in the Philippines for her significant contributions to design, making her an ambassador of France's higher education system in the country, as well as a role model for Philippine youth and future students in France.

Under Rhea's leadership, Design Center of the Philippines has received multiple notable awards, including: the highly prestigious Philippine Quill Awards for organizing the ASEAN Creative Cities Forum and Exhibition during the Philippines' chairmanship of ASEAN in 2017 and directly contributing to Baguio City's and Cebu City's conferment as UNESCO Creative Cities for Crafts and Folk Art and Design, respectively; and the Anvil Award in the Arts, Culture, Heritage, and Tourism category in 2024 for the International Design Conference, one of Design Center's annual signature events. In 2019, Design Center's pinyapel initiative received the Future Impact Pencil from the UK-based D&AD Awards in the Environment and Sustainability category for their material research project on agricultural waste using pineapple leaves. The D&AD Awards are the most coveted standard for creative achievement in design and advertising, and the industry considers them to be akin to "career knighthood". Supported by the Green Climate Fund, Design Center is currently working to scale up pinyapel manufacturing by establishing a pulp mill, with the purpose of transforming agricultural waste to replace single-use plastic and advocating the circular economy in the Philippines. Rhea led the pioneering study of the Philippine Design and Innovation Ecosystem through design economy mapping, which informed the formulation of the country's first ever National Design Policy 2025 - 2030, which was approved by the Design Advisory Council, the country's design think tank, in April 2025.

Rhea holds an undergraduate degree in business management with a minor in marketing from Ateneo de Manila University, as well as two master's degrees: a Master's in Industrial Design from Pratt Institute in New York, USA, and a Master's in Business Administration with a major in International Luxury Brand Management from ESSEC Business School in Paris, France, where she graduated third in her class (Beta Gamma Sigma).

A First in the Philippines: Benilde is Now an Adobe Creative Campus

De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde has been officially recognized as the first Adobe Creative Campus in the Philippines, a distinction awarded to institutions that actively promote creativity, innovation, and digital literacy across disciplines. This milestone comes after the College successfully provided Adobe Creative Cloud access to its students and faculty—reinforcing its commitment to preparing future-ready learners.

As part of the global Adobe Creative Campus network, Benilde gains access to a wealth of exclusive benefits, including specialized learning resources, Adobe-led training and workshops, and opportunities to collaborate with other leading institutions around the world. This recognition strengthens Benilde's mission to integrate technology and design in education, empowering its community to lead in the creative economy.

AFP Awards Plaque of Distinction to Benilde for Support to Fallen Soldiers' Families

Benilde was honored for its long-term partnership with AFPEBSO and its scholarship program for children of military personnel who died or were injured in service. The partnership began in 2009 under then President and Chancellor Br. Victor Franco FSC, through a formal agreement with AFPEBSO. Since then, the College has offered full scholarships to qualified applicants, covering 100% of tuition and fees. Priority is given to children of soldiers killed in action, discharged with disability, or affected by combat. Benilde also supports scholars from the Philippine National Police (PNP), especially those assigned near its campuses.

The Center for Quality Management and Accreditation, led by Mr. Geronio Ulayao, played a key role in guiding the process. His leadership helped ensure that everything was clear, organized, and purposeful.
Academic leaders and associates also gave their full support. Their hard work and dedication helped strengthen the programs and build a culture of innovation, integrity, and growth at Benilde.
This achievement is a proud moment for the entire Benildean community. It shows what can happen when people work together with a shared vision. Benilde continues to grow and lead in education, both in the Philippines and beyond.

How to Level Up Your Success: Strategies for Growth and Achievement

On March 28, 2025, the School of Hotel, Restaurant and Institution Management of De La Salle - College of Saint Benilde proudly welcomed renowned speaker, bestselling author, and industry leader Mr. Francis J. Kong for a powerful and inspiring talk titled "How to Level Up Your Success: Strategies for Growth and Achievement." Hosted by Vateliens in Progress, the event drew students, faculty, and aspiring professionals eager to gain wisdom from one of the country's most respected thought leaders.

Enrollment Statistics

This section presents an overview of student enrollment for Academic Year 2024–2025, reflecting the size, composition, and distribution of the Benildean student body across programs and levels. The data highlights enrollment trends, student diversity, and areas of growth, providing insight into the College's academic reach and its continued commitment to accessible, inclusive, and relevant education.

The School of Arts, Culture, and Performance merges the relationship between our identity and our social and academic transactions within the structure of the college; the appellation fluidly describing our implicit role as meaning-makers across local and international contexts engaging in various gestures in the arts, culture, and creative industry sectors, a shared vision with the Benildean community for an extraordinary education for diversely-gifted learners.

Benilde Deaf School (BDS) is one of the newest innovative programs in De La Salle-College of Saint Benilde. It is the first bilingual-bicultural program for Deaf high school students in the country. Inaugurated in 2018, the school develops and strengthens the students' Deaf identity and prepares them for college life and future career.

The school advocates Filipino Sign Language (FSL), the natural language of the Deaf Filipinos, as the primary language of instruction. Written English and Filipino are also used and taught as secondary languages. BDS promotes the understanding and appreciation of both Deaf and Hearing cultures, giving learners a holistic sense of community and pride. Benilde Deaf School operates under permit by the Department of Education.
